

DANCING IN THE RAIN

I had your picture sittin by my bed
And as the sun slept, every night I said
Someday soon babe, you would know my love
But now I guess that day may never come

I was wearing my bulletproof vest
To keep that shot from burning through my chest
But I made an exception; I took that risk for you
Now you've found someone else, and the bullet tore right through

You were DANCING IN THE RAIN

You were DANCING IN THE RAIN

Now my heart is broke in two

And I'll never be the same

You were DANCING IN THE RAIN

Now I'll have to live without you

Well I guess that's just the game

I had the feeling you had feelings too
So I came down your street and saw you right on cue
You were with her and I looked to the sky
The rain poured down as I started to cry

Can't get that picture out of my head

You, in each other's arms

While I stood shivering in the ice cold weather

Well I'm sure you two were warm

(Chorus)

I guess all those times you were just leading me on

You were by my side but now baby you're gone

Off with that girl I should've known all the time

I guess you're with her but I wish you were mine

(Chorus)

If I opened up before, would I save myself this pain?

If I ever want a rainbow, then I guess I'll need some rain
