

This Moment

You pick me up on a Saturday night

Drive your brother's car but it's alright with me (alright with me)

On the way to the game you turn the radio up to a Billy Joel song

We laugh we smile and I realize we might just get along

Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Ohh

We walk to the game, take our seats at the 50 yard line

Everyone's wondering if we're together, could he be mine?

The home team scores we all jump up, raise our hands and cheer

Then you lean down below the noise and whisper in my ear

You and me seem right somehow

I like having you by my side

(Chorus)

Well I've been told these things never last forever

But I'm here to say that just ain't the truth

Cause I know I'm always gonna have this moment

And I hope it means just as much to you

Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Ohh

The crowd is gone it's just you and me

Sittin on a swing on an old oak tree

I turn my head feel your lips on mine

a perfect ending on a perfect night (a perfect night)

You and me seem right somehow

I like having you by my side

(Chorus)

Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Ohh (X2)

You and me seem right somehow

I like having you by my side

(Chorus) X2

Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Ohh (X2)
