

Absolutely Santa

Mother takes me to the mall without fail this time of year
To see the jolly man with the white hair and beard
But I know that he can't be at every mall the same time
Some imposter's got the job to please the children in line

But when I sat on his knee
He whispered to me
Exactly what I wanted
For Christmas

I looked out the window
And it started to snow
At that moment I was sure
He's the one I've been looking for

He was Santa, Santa Claus
He's the man, he's the guy
With the twinkle in his eye

Yes he's Santa, Santa Claus
Wears a red hat on his head
Got 9 reindeer in his shed

This Holiday is filled with magic because
It's Absolutely Santa Claus

So I asked him all the questions that I've wanted to know
Like how he fits down the chimney, or flies through the snow
Or what's his favorite Christmas movie or which reindeer he likes best
Oh I know I'm gonna get what I asked for on my list

When I sat on his knee
He whispered to me
Exactly what I wanted
For Christmas

I looked out the window
And it started to snow
At that moment I was sure
He's the one I've been looking for

He was Santa, Santa Claus
He's the man, he's the guy
With the twinkle in his eye

Yes he's Santa, Santa Claus
Wears a red hat on his head
Got 9 reindeer in his shed

This Holiday is filled with magic because
It's Absolutely Santa Claus

I'll admit, I was skeptical at first
Could he really be the one and only?
What are the chances that we'd both be here today?
How could I be that lucky?

He was Santa, Santa Claus
He's the man, he's the guy
With the twinkle in his eye

Yes he's Santa, Santa Claus
Wears a red hat on his head
Got 9 reindeer in his shed

This Holiday is filled with magic because
It's Absolutely Santa Claus
