

Ghost of You

It's been awhile since you darkened my door
I should be over it by now
And I've been trying to leave you behind
But I'm still seeing you around

*'Cause I'm tortured by your smile when I fall asleep
Every day I wake up broken
Yeah you left my heart a'bleeding underneath these sheets
And I'm forever wounded*

I'm still haunted by the ghost of you
Can't get over what you put me through
I'm weary-eyed and sleep deprived
Why won't you let me live my life?
I'm still haunted by the ghost of you

I swear I still hear you whisper my name
I turn around you're never there
I feel your breath on the back of my neck
Your fingers running through my hair

*And I'm tortured by your smile when I fall asleep
Every day I wake up broken
Yeah you left my heart a'bleeding underneath these sheets
And I'm forever wounded*

But I refuse to let you be in control
It's time I stepped out from behind your shadow
You've followed me for too long
And now I need to move on
Before it's too late

I'm still haunted by the ghost of you
Can't get over what you put me through
I'm weary-eyed and sleep deprived
Why won't you let me live my life?
I'm still haunted by the ghost of you
