

3 Strikes

Tears pouring down like a rainy day,
I've been here before
"Forgive me, Forgive me" that's what you say
I can't take no more

Your words, they're all lies when you speak to me
Guess I should have known
That what you did once you would do again
Guess that's how it goes

But I've learned my lesson
I won't fall for your tricks, no
Just one time too many
I've got to let you go

The first time I found you lyin'
And the second time you left me cryin'
It's the third time around you went and let me down
It's true that I once loved ya
But you're not there when I need ya
And my heart can't take this roller coaster ride
So that's all you're gonna get: 3 STRIKES

I'm not as naïve as you think I am
I'm a big girl now
I've learned that I can't put my faith in you
The truth speaks too loud

But I've learned my lesson
I won't fall for your tricks, no
Just one time too many
I've got to let you go

(Chorus)

And there's no turning back no time to apologize
Can't take one more day I'm through dealing with your lies
So go find someone else whose heart is stronger than mine
And I'll find someone else who won't break my heart 3 times

(Chorus)
