

Yet To Come

Can't sleep 'cause the thunder's too loud
Even heaven is bringing you down
You'll get some rest another day

You're drowning, lost in the crowd
You'll be ready when the vultures come down
To clean up your remains

I know that you are hurtin'
But just hear me say

Oh you'll find a way, the sun will find the sky, dark times will change
So Chin up, Be Strong, The best oh, best is oh, the best is only yet to come

Step back see the situation
Your mindset is your own creation
Don't be afraid to flip a switch

I know it's a lot to take in Like new shoes are hard to break in
But you're gonna find your perfect fit

You're stubborn with your pain
But listen when I say

Oh you'll find a way, the sun will find the sky, dark times will change
So Chin up, Be Strong, The best oh, best is oh, the best is only yet to come

Life is fair, it hurts everyone
We've all been there, hit rock bottom
You might not trust yourself, but trust me
These words are yours to keep

Oh you'll find a way, the sun will find the sky, dark times will change
So Chin up, Be Strong, The best oh, best is oh, the best is only yet to come
